Seventeen Brookdale Communities Achieve Annual "Best Nursing Home" Designation

BRENTWOOD, Tenn., Nov. 13, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Seventeen Brookdale skilled nursing communities made the cut for this year's "Best Nursing Homes" list by U.S. News & World Report. Click here to search the entire U.S. News & World Report's Best Nursing Homes list.

Each facility is rated on a five-level scale and the "best" designation is given to those that earn the top-rated label in care, safety, health inspections, staffing and other criteria. The data is collected by the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), the agency that sets and enforces standards for skilled nursing facilities.

"We're proud of the top performing skilled nursing communities and their high rankings on the U.S. News list," said Charlie Anderson, vice president of skilled nursing operations for Brookdale. "It's a significant distinction that highlights the commitment to quality standards and care that we have at Brookdale."
